Rosetta Lawrence

Hello, my name is Rosetta Lawrence and I am a volunteer with Love-MeNow nonprofit organization. I embroider the patches that are either ironed or sewed on their products. Machine embroidery is one of my passions and I am delighted to be able to do this to glorify God. I am also grateful to have this small part in LoveMeNow's vision of reaching souls for the Kingdom of God. The Sellars and I worship together at LFCM and I have found them to be sincere and honest, and most of all, they love the Lord. What God has blessed me with, I will continue to be a blessing. Thank you

Gabriela Garcia

Thank you for the opportunity to introduce myself. My name is Gabriela Gracia, and I recently graduated from high school. I aspire to become a dental technician and will be starting my studies at Miami-Dade College for the first two years before transferring to Howard University to complete my education. Whenever I have the chance, I love returning home to DC to spend time with my family and create lasting memories with my grandparents as they age. My family has been my backbone throughout all my major milestones, and I cannot thank them enough for their unwavering support.

Greetings in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ!

We give thanks to God for “Love Me Now Outreach Ministries.” I appreciate everyone who contributed to the birth of this ministry—whether through prayers, advice, or encouraging words. Our mission is to create family support groups, offer referral services, provide job training, foster networking opportunities, encourage young men’s growth, support new business start-ups, address chronic diseases, and teach Godly principles from His word. Ultimately, we aim to restore unity within families. These goals may seem ambitious, but we serve a mighty God who can do the impossible.

As we move forward in this ministry, we humbly ask for your prayers and support. The task ahead requires both prayer and financial backing. I’m reaching out to request your prayers that God will equip us during this season. Let’s agree in faith that God will provide like-minded team members who share our passion for people and the community. Although the need is great, I’m reminded of how our Savior multiplied a little boy’s lunch to feed 5,000. He’s a God who can perform miracles.

As you pray alongside Love Me Now Ministries, I also ask that you consider contributing financially to this cause. Jesus asked Peter, “Do you love me?” Peter responded, “Lord, you know all things; you know that I love you.” Jesus replied, “Feed my sheep.” Even today, Jesus calls on us to meet needs by serving and lifting people in our communities (DC, MD, VA).

We’ve partnered with clothing drives, food banks, homeless shelters, and transitional homes to support people where they are and help them progress. Your contribution, no matter the amount, plays a vital role in achieving our goals. Whether it’s a monthly commitment or a one-time donation—be it $25, $50, $100, $250, $500, $1,000, or more—your generosity empowers our God-ordained work. Rest assured that your contributions are tax-deductible. To get in touch or share your information, please email us at Lovemenow709@gmail.com or contact us at 202-599-7455 We look forward to hearing from you soon.
